KIRKPATRICK MEMORIAL COMMUNITY CHURCH

The Church Mouse

Report from Session

The Church Life committee is to be graciously thanked for the Christmas Jubilee at KMCC, which was held Sunday, December 18, 2022 at 7:00 pm. We plan on making it an annual event. Everyone enjoyed our own talent along with some outside assistance. The trio, "Sister's Promise" from Caldwell was so amazing as well as Sha Terrahnica Cummins along with her seven year old daughter.

There were about 60 people in attendance.

The Worship Committee put together 18 of us to go caroling after church on December 18, 2022. It was suggested for next year that we do this a week earlier. We were young and old, stopping at nine locations.

It is rewarding.

The annual retreat for incoming and outgoing Deacons and Elders will be January 6 & 7 with that Friday night being a dinner at Brad Watson's office. The Saturday morning meeting is the January Session meeting.

The annual congregational meeting is scheduled for Sunday, January 29, 2023.

Women's Association News

Presbyterian Women's Association held their annual Christmas celebration December 10 with a festive luncheon. Susan Bennett opened her home at Roswell for the event, where guests enjoyed a lovely winter view of the valley below. Twenty-one women were in attendance, as well as one cat named Kallie.

Ladies of the group prepared the menu of ham, potato casserole and two scrumptious salads, topped off with a delicious dessert, which could only be described as a "pecan, caramel, cheesecake, coconut concoction thingy." The magnificent treat was prepared by Butter and Love, the new bakery operating out of Betty Johnston's former home. We welcome them to the community, and expect they will soon be overwhelmed with orders.

The "grand finale" was the traditional White Elephant gift exchange. As usual, it was raucously delightful. A few dear ladies were unable to attend but they were remembered in prayer and good will, as we look forward to next year.
