KIRKPATRICK MEMORIAL COMMUNITY CHURCH

The Church Mouse

Message from Charlie

It's been and continues to be an active Lenten and Easter season at Kirkpatrick. We started with a Fat Tuesday dinner sponsored by Church Life followed by a contemplative Ash Wednesday service. We still have a couple of Bible studies left on the book of John. These are held in the Koinonia room downstairs in the church at 7PM Tuesday evening and we have a homecooked meal as well. We play catch up at the beginning of each evening, so if you've missed any or all of our studies to date it's no problem, just come and eat and learn with us anyway!

Holy week will also offer a number of services for you to enjoy. Wednesday evening at 7PM we will offer a service, as well as a Good Friday service also at 7PM. Both services will feature a contemplative feel with original artwork by Mother Marta accompanied by verses from the Book of John. And of course we will have our Easter Sunday Service at 11AM. I hope you are taking this time to reflect on your own spiritual journey and encourage you to share that journey with your Kirkpatrick family at one of our many worship opportunities. Blessings! Pastor Charlie

News from Session

The ladies restroom in the church basement has been in need of a remodel for many years. We have invested in an expert to analyze the situation, considering sewer line, vents, hidden pipes, etc. The result is that we are not able to do a lot of rearranging, thus we will go with replacing fixtures and giving it new look.

We now await the bid from the plumbers. The funding is coming from the Women's Association, the Men's Group and some memorials. It is hoped to have this project underway in June.

Preschool PJ Party

The preschool kids were learning the colors of the rainbow & celebrating Dr Seuss with a PJ Movie Day! Our great PFD & PPD folks came to the party & read Dr Seuss books to them. Sounds like fun to me!
